Change of ownership:

- Transfer can be made at any time and to any natural person with permanent residence in Cuba. Resolution 82 of 2012.
- In cases where it involves a movement of domicile, it will only be possible if there is technical availability and there are no unsatisfied demands pending to be resolved.
- Likewise, to proceed in the swaps, the provisions will be maintained where it is only necessary to change the name between holders, presenting the corresponding documentation.
- International departure service:
- The owner of the service, or her agent, who has a telephone service belonging to a digital exchange can contract the automatic International Long Distance service.
- It is a postpaid service that is billed in CUC, and payment can also be made in CUP according to the current exchange rate.
