Putting the shoulder for Soberana 02 has also been a return to that story of emancipated, brave men and women, delivered to their nation in every possible way. There were those who put their breasts, there were those who literally put their lives, and for them we are here: making vaccines in the midst of an increasingly unequal, more selfish world. And thanks to those examples of personal detachments, hundreds of Cubans, with their eyes closed, are signing up as volunteers and turning into letters and numbers for the good of others. »
