Our municipality has 2 Deputies to the ANPP, 1 base delegate and 1 of interest elected for the IX Legislature.

Deputies

Pursuant to Article 115 of the Constitution of the Republic, the condition of deputy does not entail personal privileges or economic benefits. During the time they spend in the effective performance of their functions, the deputies receive the same remuneration from their workplace and maintain the link with it, for the relevant purposes.

The deputy coordinates his functions as such with his usual responsibilities and tasks. However, by decision of the President of the National Assembly, he may be designated to carry out full-time activities during the term of office or for the term he determines, after reconciliation with the head of the body or entity where the deputy works.

Duties of the Deputies:

The deputies have the duty to carry out their tasks for the benefit of the people, maintain contact with their constituents, listen to their proposals, suggestions and criticisms, and explain the State's policy to them. Likewise, they will render account of the fulfillment of their functions.

They also have the following:

- a) maintain conduct in accordance with the ethical principles that correspond to his condition of deputy;
- b) refrain from invoking or making use of their condition for personal gain or in the exercise of improper efforts on behalf of third parties;
- c) comply with the agreements of the National Assembly as far as they are concerned;
- d) punctually attend the sessions of the National Assembly and the meetings of the commissions of which they are part;
- e) any other that is imposed by the Constitution of the Republic, laws and regulations.

Deputies Rights:

- a) participate with voice and vote in the sessions of the National Assembly and in the meetings of the Commissions of which they are part;
- b) attend with voice but without vote to the meetings of the
